Staff Reports:

- Police Department Chief Lockard reported that Officer Sherman cut back to part part time. Computer system Insync training for employees will be mid-August on new police system.
- Fire Department Chief Lockard discussed Jefferson Township Fire Departments need for township covid funds (ARPA) turn out gear as stated above. Along with the fire department wanted to tear down an old building and build a new building, they would take a loan for that but would like help with siding the fire departments buildings. Garage doors are sticking going to call to get those fixed. Fire department is asking for around $ 25,000. Will get quotes on everything. Tabled this till next supervisors meeting.
- Parks and Recreation
- Road Report Mr. McCullough reported the road crew has been burming roads. Prepping Lake Rd. & Kyle Rd. for Scratch Overlay. They will Seal Coat 8 to 10 mile of roads. The tractor is back and out mowing ditches. All the trucks are back and fixed. Kevin from SEI will be stopping out to measure V boxes and bringing the township a JCB Demo Excavator to try out.
- Sewer Report

Unfinished Business:

Purchase of New Excavator tabled till next months supervisor meeting.

Purchased new swings for existing swing set behind the township building for kids to use when the township hall is rented.

New Business:

Mr. McCullough brought up possible pavilion for over at the lodge to rent out. It would just be a basic pole building no sides.

Mr. McCullough discussed possible eagle scout will to clean up trail across from the lodge. The eagle scout will have to show trail project to his superiors for them to approve this project. The township would purchase the items if needed and the eagle scout group would do the work.

Mr. Burkett read the dates for the upcoming meetings.
